

DESIGNATED SECURITY DUTIES

Target Group: Must be undertaken by seafarers engaged on ships which are required to comply with the provisions of the ISPS Code, which have designated duties under the ship security plan.

Objectives: On acquiring an STCW certificate of proficiency in designated security duties, a seafarer will be able to:

- Maintain the conditions set out in the ship security plan;
- Recognize security risk and threats;
- Undertake regular security inspection; and
- Properly use security equipment and systems.

Introduction: This learning opportunity is designed for the training of all Seafarers' onboard ships to which the ISPS code applies must carry the DSD certificate.

In addition to the onboard security training, this is mandatory for ship personnel responsible for ship security, new security trainings have been made compulsory for all personnel employed or engaged on board ships.

Outline:

- Module One: Maintain conditions set out in a Ship Security Plan
- Module Two: Recognition of Security Risk and Threats
- Module Three: Undertake Regular Security Inspections of the ship
- Module Four: Proper usage of Security equipment and Systems

Prerequisites: Medically fit for sea

Duration: 2 Days

Completion: Exit level: The competent learner will be able to perform the role of a designated security member as part of supervisory level.

Assessment: Written assessment

Certification: SAMSA STCW Certificate of Completion

STCW Ref: A-VI/6- 2

