

Aeronautical VHF Radio for Offshore Helicopter Operations:

Suited for:

- a) Helicopter Landing Officers
- b) Radio Operators
- c) Helicopter Deck Assistants
- d) Bridge watchkeeping Officers of Standby Vessels during HLO Operations

This course is presented in a classroom environment, in Cape Town and Durban, and is designed to facilitate procedures required in order to maintain two way Aeronautical VHF radio communications with Helicopters during the transfer of personnel and goods from ship to shore.

(PLUS vice versa).

The Aeronautical VHF Radio for Offshore HLO Operations course duration is dependant on total student attendance:

1 to 6 Attendees = one day

7 to 12 Attendees (Maximum per course = two days

All attendees will be required to successfully pass a theoretical and practical component.

A Certificate of Competence will be issued to all successful attendees which is valid for a two year period after which you would be required to undertake a refresher.

Cost per person = R2750

In accordance with UK CAP 413 / 437 / 452

Offshore Aeronautical Radio Operations